Available Information

The diagram consists of three main rectangular boxes connected by a funnel shape. The first box on the left is dark grey and contains the text 'All Available Information'. A funnel shape, composed of several horizontal bands of varying shades of grey and green, narrows from the first box to the second. The second box is also dark grey and contains the text '$462.8B World Equity Trading in 2018 (Daily Average)'. A single, solid green band narrows further from the second box to the third. The third box is a solid light green and contains the text 'Prices'.
